

Itinerary 4 - Golfing

If you are a keen golfer, North Belfast is home to some fantastic golf courses.

Cliftonville Golf Club

Cliftonville Golf Club was founded in 1911 and is one of Belfast City's oldest clubs. It is a nine hole course which presents a serious test of Golf. Measuring over 6200 yds and featuring a starting hole nominated twice in BBC NI's toughest par 3. This is followed by a superb par 4 at over 450 yds. This course under the shadow of the cavehill has beautifully matured greens full of subtle contours. Click here for more details www.cliftonvillegolfclub.com/

Fortwilliam Golf Club

Fortwilliam Golf Club is located off the Antrim Road at Downview Avenue in the suburbs of North Belfast. This course is situated in an area of natural beauty and in the shadow of Cavehill and Belfast Lough to the east. Although not a long course, it provides a good test of golf as most holes have narrow tree-lined fairways and small difficult-to-read greens.
